

Northallerton Group walks in 2022

<http://www.northallertonramblers.org.uk>

| Date           | Start                                                                                                                                                         | Walk                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                             | Distance      | Difficulty |
|----------------|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|---------------|------------|
| Thu 06/01/2022 | 09:45 Starting from the Public Toilets, Saunders Avenue, Hamsterley.Nearest Post Code DL13 3PXW3W preoccupied.advantage.club (DL13 3PE, NZ119320) | Hamsterley and the Weardale Way CANCELLEDFrom Hamsterley Village heading North to Black Bamk Plantation and East to The Weardale Way. Then South passing Wiserley Hall and Shipley Moss back to Hamsterley with a little bit of Lane walking.                  | 10.5mi/16.9km | Moderate   |
| Thu 06/01/2022 | 10:00 Park and meet at the Green Richmond.(DL10 4RG, NZ168006)                                                                                            | A Swirl around the SwaleStarting from the Green in Richmond, walking along the Swale to Round Howe, through Witcliffe Wood, returnning to the Falls and going on to complete the loop around Easby Abbey. One short climb.                                     | 8.5mi/13.7km  | Leisurely  |
| Thu 06/01/2022 | 10:00 Park in Chop Gate Village Hall car park - parking charge.Walk starts and ends there. (TS9 7JS, SE559993)                                            | Two DalesA medium walk, strenuous in parts, up over a muddy track north via Cold Moor into Raisdale and back via Barkers Ridge and Bilsdale Moor with a steep descent back to Chop Gate village car park                                                       | 8mi/12.9km    | Moderate   |
| Thu 06/01/2022 | 10:30 West Burton Village Green (DL8 4LQ, SE016865)                                                                                                           | Walk around the Lanes of West Burton,Thoralby and AysgarthWest Burton towards Thoralby before walking on Eastfield Lane & then climb fields to Aysgarth Church.Follow R.Ure by falls to Hestholme Bridge and then follow R.Cover to Eshington Bridge to return | 7mi/11.3km    | Leisurely  |
| Thu 13/01/2022 | 10:00 Jervaulx Abbey car park (Honesty Box).One and half miles east of East Witton on the A6108. (HG4 4PH, SE168856)                                      | Jervaulx and EllingstringStarting from Jervaulx Abbey car park, visiting South and North Ellington, returning via Ellingstring. No major hills to climb, a couple of short muddy sections - a lovely walk.                                                     | 8mi/12.9km    | Leisurely  |
| Thu 13/01/2022 | 10:00 Free carpark at Broken Scar Picnic Area, DarlingtonNZ 258139 (DL3 8TB, NZ259138)                                                                    | The ConiscliffesAn easy walk for a winter's day. From the free carpark at Broken Scar picnic area we head west before turning north to Coniscliffe Grange then west to High Coniscliffe for our lunch stop.Here we pick                                        | 8mi/12.9km    | Easy       |
| Thu 13/01/2022 | 10:00 roadside parking in Ingleby cross old road after the last house near to footpath sign (DL6 3NQ, NZ450007)                                               | A New Year Noctamulation (Walk)Mostley level walking with the odd stile across field paths and tracks. taking the northerly Fowgill track towards Potto and crossing the A172 to Wholton (short steep bank here) then onto Swainby.                            | 8mi/12.9km    | Moderate   |

|                |                                                                                                                                                                                                         |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                       |               |           |
|----------------|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|---------------|-----------|
| Thu 20/01/2022 | 09:30 Start at car park at entrance to Kynren, Bishop Auckland immediately north of the Newton Cap viaduct on A689 on north side of Bishop Auckland DL14 7SBOS MAP 305 NZ205306 (DL3 8HN, NZ205306) | Kynren Circular "NOTE NEW START TIME"Railways & river paths to the north of Bishop Auckland. Following the Weardale Way Railway Path & river bank footpath past Willington to Page Bank & returning via Hagg Lane railway path & footpaths   | 10.5mi/16.9km | Moderate  |
| Thu 20/01/2022 | 10:00 Parking in the centre of Osmotherley near the Market Cross and The Golden Lion Pub. (DL6 3BJ, SE456972)                                                                                           | CANCELLED Woodland walk at Thimbleby CANCELLEDA circular walk from Osmotherley taking in Thimbleby Bank Plantation. Includes tracks, fields and some road walking with some rocky, uneven terrain up through the woods and some stiles. 284m at the | 7mi/11.2km    | Moderate  |
| Thu 20/01/2022 | 10:00 What3Words:///brimmed.stoppage.sourcing (HG3 3AZ, SE284603)                                                                                                                                   | Ripley circularThis circular walk takes us from the car park, past Ripley Castle along tracks, roads and across fields via Hampsthwaite, Birstwith and Burnt Yates.                                                                                 | 8.3mi/13.4km  | Leisurely |
| Thu 20/01/2022 | 10:00 Parking on Great Ayton High Street or High Green. The walk starts opposite Suggitts Ice Cream Shop and The Discovery Centre. (TS9 6NE, NZ560110)                                                  | Captain Cooks Monument.A circular walk from Great Ayton via Easby, Borough Green Farm up to Captain Cooks Monument returning to Great Ayton via little Ayton.                                                                                       | 7mi/11.3km    | Moderate  |
| Thu 27/01/2022 | 10:00 Park on Church Lane, Swainby (DL6 3EA, NZ478021)                                                                                                                                                  | Swainby circularThis walk takes us from Swainby past Whorlton Castle and Church to Faceby and Carlton. We then head towards (but not up!) the Cleveland Hills, turning to go through the woods of Little Bonny Cliff.                               | 7.5mi/12km    | Moderate  |
| Thu 27/01/2022 | 10:00 The car park on Cleveland Road just by its junction with Weathercote Lane. What 3 Words pounds.partly.linked (YO7 2HW, SE515860)                                                                  | Secret nooks and hollowsA moderate walk with a couple of steep ascents. Heading towards High Paradise we go along Daletown Common with excellent views. Through Noodle End to Murton Grange, Boltby Scar with sweeping and                          | 8mi/12.9km    | Moderate  |
| Thu 27/01/2022 | 10:00 Park at the side of the road as you come into Kildale from the west (YO21 2RG, NZ605092)                                                                                                          | Kildale, James Cook monument and the moorsSome road walking on quiet minor roads, and well marked paths. interesting bits of history                                                                                                                | 8.3mi/13.4km  | Moderate  |
| Thu 03/02/2022 | 10:00 Park in the main car park by the visitor centre and gather at the roundabout where you enter (HG4 3DZ, SE273686)                                                                                  | Fountains Abbey and villagesFrom Fountains Abbey we will walk through the woodland to Grantley Hall, then on to the villages of High Grantley and Winksley, before turning back towards Studley Royal and through the parkland.                     | 9.5mi/15.3km  | Moderate  |
| Thu 03/02/2022 | 10:00 Cleveland Way car park near walled garden on north side of Helmsley. Use overflow car park past first car park. Fees apply (YO62 5AZ, SE609838)                                                   | 2 Dales from HelmsleyNorth of Helmsley we walk up Beckdale by the side of the stream. , and the only climb to cross the top of the valley. Then an easy walk down Ashdale back to Helmsley.                                                         | 6mi/9.7km     | Leisurely |

|                |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                       |               |           |
|----------------|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|---------------|-----------|
| Thu 03/02/2022 | 10:00 Carlton in Coverdale village hall car park - honesty box (DL8 4BA, SE069847)                                                                                                                                                             | Penhill from Carlton in CoverdaleFrom Carlton village we follow Mel Beck onto Melmerby Moor, then a sharp short climb up the southern slope of Penhill, on to the Height Hazely and returning down Carlton Moor.                                    | 7.5mi/12.1km  | Moderate  |
| Thu 10/02/2022 | 10:00 Plantation C.P. Moor Lane. East of Nether Silt. (YO7 2LL, SE473937)                                                                                                                                                                      | The Siltons &amp; OsmotherleyVaried walk via Over Silt, Thimbleby and Osmotherley. Taking in sections of The Cleveland Way and Black Hambleton. Some climbs and forest walking on good tracks.                                                      | 10.5mi/16.9km | Moderate  |
| Thu 10/02/2022 | 10:00 Park at the lay-by on the left side heading out of Brompton-on-Swale towards Richmond. Pass the church on the left and a new build on the corner (DL10 7HE, SE214998)                                                                    | A walk with romantic ruins and fine viewsFrom Brompton-on-Swale through fields to Easby Abbey then along the River Swale to Richmond returning through woodland edging the far side of the river. Finally through fields to Colburn, Thornbrough,   | 9mi/14.5km    | Moderate  |
| Thu 10/02/2022 | 10:00 Meet in the car park in Hawes the one behind the school just off Gayle road, charges apply. There are often some roadside parking places just past the Creamery as you enter Gayle. But we will meet in the car park (DL8 3RQ, SD870897) | Walk around HawesWalk to Gayle and follow Gayle beck and explore Sleddale on to Appersett and back to Hawes via Hardraw                                                                                                                             | 8.5mi/13.7km  | Moderate  |
| Thu 17/02/2022 | 09:30 (NE3 1YT, NZ251680)                                                                                                                                                                                                                      | Jesmond Dene and the River TyneWalk down Jesmond Dene to the River Tyne and along the river towards the coast using the metro to get to the start and then return to the centre. Visit the Roman fort. Have a meal in the city                      | 8mi/12.9km    | Leisurely |
| Thu 17/02/2022 | 10:00 OS map 304NZ155085DL11 7PN (DL11 7PN, NZ155085)                                                                                                                                                                                  | MAINSGILL TO JOCKEY CAP CIRCULARFrom Mainsgill Farm Shop on A66, follow fields & paths to Hartforth. Forest paths and farm tracks past Jockey Cap, then returning via High Moor Green Lane to Kirby Hill & Ravensworth back to start.               | 10.3mi/16.6km | Moderate  |
| Thu 17/02/2022 | 10:00 Car park at Castle Bolton (DL8 4ET, SE033918)                                                                                                                                                                                            | Castle Bolton CircularFrom Castle Bolton to Oxclose Gate, down to Carperby then on to Aysgarth and return via Thoresby Lane.                                                                                                                        | 8mi/12.9km    | Moderate  |
| Thu 17/02/2022 | 10:00 Park in the North Road car park. Turn left down a narrow lane just before the Co-op which is on the left hand side as you reach the High Street. (TS13 4HW, NZ720182)                                                                    | Loftus to Grinkle Mine 'CANCELLED'This walk takes us through the mining history of Loftus. Starting in Loftus Market place the walk takes us to Mines Wood near Boulby. We then head to Cow Bar with views of Staithes and walk the                 | 9.5mi/15.3km  | Moderate  |
| Thu 24/02/2022 | 10:00 Parking on Church Street - just round the corner from the Queen's Head Pub - Post Code HG4 3RS or as near as possible. Meeting point is the pub - tea & scones at the pub afterwards all being well. (HG4 3RU, SE235744)                 | Kirkby Malzeard, Winksley, Galphay &amp; Braithwaite HallA circular walk from Kirkby Malzeard through Azerley Park and past the Witch-of-the-Woods House along tracks, fields and some road walking to Winksley, Galphay and past Braithwaite Hall. | 8mi/12.9km    | Leisurely |

|                |                                                                                                                             |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                      |             |           |
|----------------|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-------------|-----------|
| Thu 24/02/2022 | 10:00 Park and walk from Clay Bank car park, on the Great Broughton to Helmsley road. (TS9 7JA, NZ572035)                   | High Level HeavenCleveland Way, the Incline and Forest paths                                                                                                                                                                                       | 8mi/12.9km  | Moderate  |
| Thu 24/02/2022 | 10:30 Jervaulx abbey car park (HG4 4PH, SE169856)                                                                           | Jervaulx Abbey, Thornton Steward and river UreStarting at Jervaulx Abbey car park a walk through parkland and pastures. A level walk with several interesting features en route and good scenery. Returning along the river Ure. Please note start | 7mi/11.3km  | Leisurely |
| Thu 03/03/2022 | 10:00 Car parking, and meet by the allotments in Raby Avenue, Barnard Castle. (DL12 8AH, NZ048167)                          | Cotherstone and the River TeesOur route takes the path through Pecknell wood, on to the Tees Railway Path to the River Balder. From there we head East towards Cotherstone, crossing the Tees and returning to Barnard Castle along                | 9mi/14.5km  | Moderate  |
| Thu 03/03/2022 | 10:00 On street parking on Station Rd, meet by Ampleforth Parish Church opposite St Hilda's Walk (YO62 4DG, SE583784)       | Ampleforth CircularWe follow field paths and forest tracks to complete a route from Ampleforth to the Abbey, across to Gilling East and its Castle, through Park Wood then back to Ampleforth passing Thorpe Grange.                               | 10mi/16.1km | Moderate  |
| Thu 03/03/2022 | 10:30 Masham market place (HG4 4DX, SE224808)                                                                               | Masham WalkMasham to Marfield , Fearby and return via golf course and Ripon Rowel. This walk may contain cows.Maximum number of walkers limited to 16.                                                                                         | 7mi/11.3km  | Leisurely |
| Thu 10/03/2022 | 09:45 Marske by the Sea Beach CP near Outwood Academy to be ready for short walk to catch bus at 10,10 (TS11 6AR, NZ632231) | Cleveland Coast Linear WalkCatch the bus to Skinningrove from Marske and return by the Cleveland Way to Saltburn ,with one steep ascent before continuing to MarskeExtended break at Saltburn with fish and chip opportunity .All              | 7mi/11.3km  | Leisurely |
| Thu 10/03/2022 | 10:00 Castle Howard Car Park-no fee. (YO60 7BY, SE710699)                                                                   | Castle Howard CountryFrom the car park we head south and through Brandrith Wood and across fields to Bulmer. Walking through the village we pick up the path to Low Mowthorpe and the fish ponds. Our next destination is                          | 10mi/16.1km | Moderate  |
| Thu 10/03/2022 | 10:00 (DL2 1AR, NZ352123)                                                                                                   | Low Dinsdale and Sockburn LoopWalking mainly along river bank and on field paths from Middleton One Row to Low Dinsdale. Following the Teesdale Way through fields to Girsby crossing the river Tees to High Sockburn and returning                | 9mi/14.5km  | Moderate  |
| Thu 17/03/2022 | 10:00 Large free parking area on the A684 at Thwaite Bridge, about 4 miles west of Hawes (DL8 3LS, SD826923)                | Two sources and one forceA circular walk in upper Wensleydale visiting the sources of both the River Eden and the River Ure, and with lunch overlooking Hellgill Force. A gentle two and a half mile walk alongside the youthful                   | 11mi/17.7km | Moderate  |
| Thu 17/03/2022 | 10:00 Car Park to the Bike Centre (DL11 6AW, SE046988)                                                                      | Fremington Edge and MarrickSteep climb to top of Fremington Edge and then its all downhill to Marrick and return along the river. Good moor and field paths                                                                                        | 8mi/12.9km  | Moderate  |

|                |                                                                                                                                                                      |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                        |               |           |
|----------------|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|---------------|-----------|
| Thu 17/03/2022 | 10:30 From Wass travel on Ampleforth Road to top of hill. JerryCarr Hill -parking in lay-bys GR SE573786. (YO62 4EB, SE573786)                                       | Byland Abbey &amp;WassStarting just outside Ampleforth we walk through fields under the edge of the Hambleton Hills to the ruins of Byland Abbey.The return journey passes through the small village of Wass. An undulating                          | 6mi/9.7km     | Leisurely |
| Thu 24/03/2022 | 09:30 Parking at Barden Bridge. Note earlier start time to secure parking places. Car share would help as this is a very popular parking place. (BD23 6AS, SE052574) | Simons Seat from Barden BridgeA good climb followed by fabulous views and a stroll through Bolton Estate passing the Strid.Leaving Barden Bridge follow the Wharfe and up Howgill Lane. A steep climb up good tracks to Simons                   | 9.5mi/15.3km  | Moderate  |
| Thu 24/03/2022 | 10:00 Rosedale Village Green (YO18 8SA, SE723959)                                                                                                                    | Rosedale - Ruins and relics of the industrial ageA popular walk steeped in the ironstone history of Rosedale.Starting at the village green we pass the remains of the old priory and head to Thorgill. From there to Dale Head and return by the old | 7.5mi/12.1km  | Moderate  |
| Thu 24/03/2022 | 10:00 Cowhouse Bank carpark 2 miles N of Helmsley on Carlton road (YO62 5HH, SE613886)                                                                               | Cowhouse Bank &amp; Newgate Bank circularFrom Cowhouse Bank car park we head W round Rievaulx moor to Newgate bank, down through Brockhill wood and below 5 banks to return (mostly on forest tracks with good surfaces).                            | 9mi/14.5km    | Moderate  |
| Thu 31/03/2022 | 10:00 Meet at the entrance to Fountains Visitor centre (by the toilets) (HG4 3DZ, SE272687)                                                                          | Aldfield, Sawley and Eavestone LakeA circular walk taking in the villages of Aldfield,and Sawley, crossing Picking Gill via Butterton Bridge, returning via Eavestone Lake and Spring Wood. Expect several stiles and muddy in parts so              | 10.5mi/16.9km | Moderate  |
| Thu 31/03/2022 | 10:00 Lowna Parking area on left of Gillamoor - Hutton le Hole road just after Low Mill turn off (YO62 7JU, SE685910)                                                | A Host of Golden DaffodilsRoute has been amended from the original due to the number of fallen trees blocking path & will now avoid the stepping stones at Harland Beck. A bit shorter but better walk!From Lowna                          | 8.7mi/14km    | Moderate  |
| Thu 31/03/2022 | 10:00 In Crayke park along Church Hill and meet at the steps to the church at the foot of the hill (YO61 4TA, SE560705)                                              | Crayke to Oulston and backFrom the village of Crayke the walk takes us across fields to Oulston from where we pick up the Foss Walk and return to Crayke along a forest track before heading past Crayke Manor and Crayke Plant                      | 8mi/12.9km    | Leisurely |
| Thu 07/04/2022 | 10:00 Welburn village. Roadside parking. Meet near Crown and Cushion Pub. (YO60 7DZ, SE721680)                                                                       | Howardian Hills Wander "CANCELLED"Walk the lush countryside of the Howardian Hills. Open views including follies and Castle Howard. Good paths including parkland.                                                                                   | 9mi/14.5km    | Leisurely |
| Thu 07/04/2022 | 10:00 Please note the post code for Seaham Hall beach Car Park Car Park is SR7 7AG (SR7 7AG, NZ419505)                                                               | Durham coast and countryside circularMeeting at Seaham Hall beach car park Seaham, walking Inland ( south) towards Hawthorn Village & Hawthorn Dene and then heading towards the England Heritage Coastal Path and walking back north along          | 10.5mi/16.9km | Moderate  |

|                |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                      |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                 |               |           |
|----------------|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|---------------|-----------|
| Thu 07/04/2022 | 10:00 Park on the roadside opposite the signpost for The Pennine Way in Hardraw, near Hawes (DL8 3LZ, SD866911)                                                                                                                      | Great Shunner FellA moderate/strenuous walk up and down this iconic mountain. The reward - a panoramic view of The Pennines and beyond !                                                                                      | 10.5mi/16.9km | Strenuous |
| Thu 07/04/2022 | 10:00 Moor Gate is on the Hawnby / Osmotherly Road. Near the North end of Hawnby Hill. (YO62 5QJ, SE540918)                                                                                                                          | HawnbyTracks and paths across woodland and moorland. The path starts North then turns East onto Hawnby Moor into Ellers Wood and onto Harker Gates. We then follow the track to Arden Hall. The route then                    | 8mi/12.9km    | Moderate  |
| Thu 14/04/2022 | 10:00 Meet by the Worsley Arms (YO62 4LA, SE667756)                                                                                                                                                                                  | Hovingham circularFrom the village of Hovingham this route heads across field paths to West Ness where it meets the eastern end of the Caulkley's Bank ridge from where there are views south to the Howardian Hills and      | 10mi/16.1km   | Moderate  |
| Thu 14/04/2022 | 10:00 Carpark opposite Ledsham Church (adjacent to The Chequers Inn) (LS25 5LN, SE456298)                                                                                                                                            | Fairburn IngsBring your binoculars to what was once the largest spoil heap in Europe, now an RSPB nature reserve. From the desirable village of Ledsham a lovely path through woodland & pasture takes us on to a             | 8.5mi/13.7km  | Leisurely |
| Thu 14/04/2022 | 10:00 Parking on B6265 for Canal/Marina - just after Racecourse on LHS as you come into edge of Ripon (immediately before the 40 speed signs) (HG4 1AJ, SE323704)                                                                    | Ripon Circular * CANCELLED*A circular walk from Ripon beside the Ripon Canal, passing through Bishop Monkton, Wormald Green and Markenfield before returning along the River Skell. Predominantly flat river, field and canal | 10mi/16.1km   | Moderate  |
| Thu 14/04/2022 | 10:00 drive past Craythorne Hall (on your left) turn right after the road junction on your left into back lane, road side parking or verge by the cricket field.what three words showdown denoting flashing (TS15 0BA, NZ439074) | Crathorne to Hutton meanderstarting from Crathorne cricket field we walk via low and high Foxton to Hutton Rudby.we return via old leven and Jamie wood.walking on field paths and tracks with some road walking.             | 9mi/14.5km    | Moderate  |
| Thu 21/04/2022 | 10:00 Start Phone Box at Hurst T junction . OS map OL30NZ 052026 (DL11 7NW, NZ052026)                                                                                                                                            | HURSTFollowing road and track to Schoolmasters Pasture, over moor to Kexwith,fields and track to Holgate,on to Helwith, following Marske Beck to Telfit,farm track and up to ridge track back to Helwith,                     | 9mi/14.5km    | Moderate  |
| Thu 21/04/2022 | 10:00 Parking in Kildale Village or just outside. Meeting on the village green in the centre. (YO21 2RG, NZ606092)                                                                                                                   | KildaleTracks, fields and moorland paths. The walk starts off up Green Gate Lane and then over past the old mines into Baysdale. From Baysdale Abbey we go onto Ingleby Moor via Middle Head. returning to                    | 9mi/14.5km    | Moderate  |
| Thu 21/04/2022 | 10:00 Newgate Bank Car Park. B1257. Approx. 5 miles NW of Helmsley. (YO62 5LT, SE564889)                                                                                                                                             | The beauty of BilsdaleStarting from the Newgate Bank car park we walk along the edge of Rievaulx Moor to Helmsley Bank where we head west crossing moor and field to Low Wood and Laskill. Over the bridge then a climb up a  | 9mi/14.5km    | Moderate  |

|                |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                  |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    |               |           |
|----------------|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|---------------|-----------|
| Thu 28/04/2022 | 10:00 Street parking next to the Green. (DL8 4SN, SE144859)                                                                                                                                                                                      | East Witton and EllingstringFrom East Witton we have a long but gentle climb, on good tracks, to Ellingstring. Then we cross Witton Moor and finally drop back down to our start point. The route is through varied countryside                  | 8mi/12.9km    | Moderate  |
| Thu 28/04/2022 | 10:00 Park in the North Road car park. Turn left down a narrow lane just before the Co-op which is on the left hand side as you reach the High Street. (TS13 4HW, NZ721182)                                                                      | Loftus to Grinkle MineThis walk takes us through the mining history of Loftus. Starting in Loftus market place we make our way over to Mines Wood near Boulby and then head to Cow Bar with the panoramic views of Staithes.                     | 9.5mi/15.3km  | Moderate  |
| Thu 28/04/2022 | 10:00 CP on old rail line adjacent to river in Pateley Bridge Just before the river bridge at the bottom of the high street turn left and drive along the road about 100 yards to linear CP. Pay machine £1.40 over 4 hours. (HG3 5NA, SE159654) | Fellbeck bluebells and Brimham rocksFrom Pateley Bridge to Glasshouses by the river Nidd. Climb gradually up through the woods to Brimham rocks. Follow the Nidderdale way through Fellbeck and small settlements to Pateley. Hopefully          | 9.5mi/15.3km  | Moderate  |
| Thu 05/05/2022 | 10:00 Ripley village car park. Please note that car parking charges are to be introduced but at 30 April it was still free parking. (HG3 3AZ, SE284603)                                                                                          | Ripley and Bishop ThorntonHopefully with bluebells a circular walk via Bedlam, Bishop Thornton and Cayton.                                                                                                                                       | 8mi/12.9km    | Moderate  |
| Thu 05/05/2022 | 10:00 what three words skin.comic.farms redcar /saltburn road A1085 from redcar roundabout approx 1 mile car park on the left behind road side toilet block. (TS10 3RF, NZ624236)                                                                | Marske by the SeaCoastal and countryside circular on good paths and tracks with some beach walking.                                                                                                                                              | 10.5mi/16.9km | Moderate  |
| Thu 12/05/2022 | 10:00 Car park at Cowhouse Bank (YO62 5HH, SE616888)                                                                                                                                                                                             | Bluebell Bonanza in RiccaldaleA stile free walk on good paths and tracks although it will be muddy in places if it has been wet before the walk. Two hills around 440 feet of climb each, one steady and one steep. The bluebells                | 8mi/12.9km    | Moderate  |
| Thu 12/05/2022 | 10:00 Park cars in the Market Place and meet by the Richard 111 Pub. (DL8 4NP, SE127877)                                                                                                                                                         | Middleham - Cover Bridge - Thornton StewardWalk from Middleham to Cover Bridge, Jervaulx Abbey and Thornton Steward. Riverside walking on good paths, coffee stop at the Abbey and lovely views of Wensledale for our lunch stop.                | 10mi/16.1km   | Leisurely |
| Thu 12/05/2022 | 10:00 Top Car Park at Castleton. This is on a quiet road just outside of the village and is located in a large area next to mounds of council grit. (YO21 2DD, NZ681077)                                                                         | Lovely Views over Westerdale (on a clear day)A circular, undulating walk on moorland tracks, fields and country roads. Walk Westward from the top of Castleton, via Westerdale Moor and John Breckon Road, to Westerdale then East to Brown Hill | 7.5mi/12.1km  | Moderate  |

|                |                                                                                                                                                                                                          |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                       |               |           |
|----------------|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|---------------|-----------|
| Thu 19/05/2022 | 10:00 Meet at Grassington National Park Visitor Centre (charges apply) (BD23 5LB, SE002638)                                                                                                              | Grassington - A walk of two halvesA splendid walk of 2 halves. From the National Park Visitor Centre we head down to the R. Wharfe which we follow for a short distance before crossing & heading uphill to Threshfield. A panoramic                | 10.5mi/16.9km | Moderate  |
| Thu 19/05/2022 | 10:00 Car parking around Arncliffe Village Green, also there are spaces further along the Malham road near the bridge.SD930719.MEET at the CHURCH (BD23 5QB, SD933719)                       | Up Hill and Down LittondaleStarting from Arncliffe church we take the path up the escarpment onto Firth Fell. A challenging climb, but our pace will reflect this, so that we can enjoy it and take in the views of Littondale as                   | 9mi/14.5km    | Moderate  |
| Thu 19/05/2022 | 10:00 Margrove Park Old Shale Pit Free Car Park (TS12 3BZ, NZ652156)                                                                                                                                     | Margrove PondsA walk past Margrove Ponds, through to Slapewath and via the Cleveland Way, over the moors to High Moor. Return via the Quakers Causeway and Birk Brow. Mix of woodland tracks and path and open                                      | 8mi/12.9km    | Moderate  |
| Thu 26/05/2022 | 10:00 The road from Horton station to the village just before it crosses the river Ribble. Park on the roadside. Toilets are available in the main car park a few minutes away (BD24 0HF, SD806727)      | Three Peaks in 3 Weeks Part 1Pen-y-ghent. We start by following the Pennine Way path north from Horton in Ribblesdale then join the 'classic' 3 peaks route across to Hull Pot, an amazing geographical feature. Then following the                 | 10mi/16.1km   | Moderate  |
| Thu 26/05/2022 | 10:00 Ballowfield Nature Reserve car parking area, a layby around one mile from Carperby on the road to Askrigg (DL8 4DW, SD986898)                                                                      | Meandering Wander from Ballowfield Nature ReserveFrom the car parking area we cross Eller Beck to climb the rocky slope up to Oxclose Road Bridleway, continuing on to visit: Carperby, Asgarth Upper Falls and Bear Park - before returning to the | 7mi/11.3km    | Leisurely |
| Thu 26/05/2022 | 10:00 The band stand is located across the road from this post code (TS12 1JS, NZ665212)                                                                                                                 | Saltburn circularMeeting near the Bandstand in Saltburn then heading east picking up the Cleveland way and eventually making our way to Skinningrove, returning to Saltburn along the Cleveland way&then head for our                               | 11mi/17.7km   | Moderate  |
| Thu 02/06/2022 | 09:55 Horton in Ribblesdale Railway Station. You can meet us here but most of us will be parking at Ribblehead and travelling by train from Ribblehead, arriving at Horton at 09:54 (BD24 0HT, SD803727) | 3 Peaks in 3 Weeks Part 2Ingleborough. We start walking from Horton in Ribblesdale again but we park at Ribblehead and catch the 09:48 train from Ribblehead to Horton. Climbing up above the station we walk through Sulber                        | 10.5mi/16.9km | Strenuous |
| Thu 02/06/2022 | 10:00 Car park in Kewick East of Old Chapel. if full roadside parking nearby. (YO7 2JW, SE467908)                                                                                                        | Kewick Rhododendrons and ThorodaleThrough the rhododendrons on Atlay Bank, up to Gallow Hill and Steeple Cross. Down towards Arden Hall and back up private tracks (by kind permission of Mexborough Estates) through Thorodale to the              | 8.6mi/13.8km  | Moderate  |

|                |                                                                                                                                                                      |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |               |          |
|----------------|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|---------------|----------|
| Thu 02/06/2022 | 10:00 Park in the lay-by just before the village of West Witton. If full, park in the village. We start the walk by walking through the village, (DL8 4UQ, SE066884) | West Witton, West Burton circularThis is an undulating walk with hills. Starting in West Witton we walk up towards Penhill along Langthwaite Lane and Morpeth Scar, eventually dropping steeply down to West Burton. From there we                     | 10mi/16.1km   | Moderate |
| Tue 07/06/2022 | 16:00 Blacksmiths Arms pub and restaurant (DL6 3HY, NZ476021)                                                                                                        | Swainby evening walk with pub meal afterParking at Blacksmiths Arms Swainby walking up to the Cleveland way via Hollin Hill, Faceby Plantation return back lane, Faceby and Whorlton. Farm / woodland paths and tracks. A few stiles and some          | 6mi/9.7km     | Moderate |
| Thu 09/06/2022 | 09:45 Park on grass verge near Gunnerside lodge above Ivelet bridge (DL11 6JH, SD934982)                                                                             | Hills and meadows in SwaledalePLEASE NOTE START TIME so we can get to Keld for lunch. There are 3 significant ascents, stones paths and LOTS of stiles. Starting above Ivelet bridge walking via Rash to Muker, Keld, Angram Thwaite,                  | 10.5mi/16.9km | Moderate |
| Thu 09/06/2022 | 10:00 Park on the roadside at the east end of the main street (DL11 7DW, NZ085103)                                                                                   | Barningham and the River GretaDropping down to the River Greta and then along both banks of the river and through the woods and fields to Barningham                                                                                                   | 9.5mi/15.3km  | Moderate |
| Thu 09/06/2022 | 10:00 Ribbleshead where the B6255 meets the B6479. Plenty of roadside parking available (LA6 3AU, SD765793)                                                          | 3 Peaks in 3 Weeks Part 3Wharfedale. Starting from Ribbleshead we follow the Settle-Carlisle railway line north, crossing it at Force Gill, and continue to the summit of Wharfedale. We then walk south along the summit ridge and                    | 10.2mi/16.4km | Moderate |
| Thu 16/06/2022 | 10:00 Park alongside the village green beyond the Old School House. (DL8 3EL, SD933901)                                                                              | Bainbridge - Marsett - Semer WaterA bracing walk from Bainbridge heading along the Cam High Road before turning south east off the ridge down to Marsett, and returning via Semer Water and along the bank of the River Bain                           | 8.5mi/13.7km  | Moderate |
| Thu 16/06/2022 | 10:00 Park near the bridge in the village of Sinnington. (YO62 6RY, SE743858)                                                                                        | Sinnington circularFrom Sinnington we walk uphill through the wood until we reach the village of Cropton. We then pick up the Tabular Hills walk, winding our way through fields until Wrelton. From here we have an                                   | 9.5mi/15.3km  | Moderate |
| Thu 16/06/2022 | 10:00 Good parking area just before Grinton Lodge on RHS as you climb the Leyburn Road out of Grinton. (DL11 6HS, SE046977)                                          | Harkerside Moor and Apedale from Grinton LodgeFrom Grinton Lodge over Harkerside Moor with panoramic views up Swaledale and back to Grinton via Apedale and Greets Hill. This ridge walk is on good tracks all day with no stiles and loads of Grouse! | 10.5mi/16.9km | Moderate |
| Thu 23/06/2022 | 10:00 Conyngham Hall car park (HG5 9AX, SE344572)                                                                                                                    | Knaresborough and the River NiddA circular walk from Conyngham Hall on tracks and paths via Bilton Hall, Old Bilton and Nidd Gorge                                                                                                                     | 7.5mi/12.1km  | Moderate |
| Thu 23/06/2022 | 10:00 Parking on B6265 for Canal/Marina - just after Racecourse on LHS as you come into edge of Ripon (immediately before the 40 speed signs) (HG4 1AJ, SE323704)    | Ripon CircularA circular walk from Ripon making use of sections of the Ripon Rowell. We walk beside the Ripon Canal, passing through Bishop Monkton, Wormald Green and past Markenfield Hall before returning along                                    | 10mi/16.1km   | Moderate |

|                |                                                                                                                                                                                                     |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                        |              |           |
|----------------|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|--------------|-----------|
| Thu 30/06/2022 | 10:00 The road from Horton station to the village just before it crosses the river Ribble. Park on the roadside. Toilets are available in the main car park a few minutes away (BD24 0HF, SD806727) | 3 Peaks in 3 Weeks Part 1This walk was originally offered on 26th May 2022 but was cancelled at the last minute due to adverse weather conditions.Pen-y-ghent. We start by following the Pennine Way path north from Horton in                   | 10mi/16.1km  | Moderate  |
| Thu 30/06/2022 | 10:00 Free parking opposite or close to the CB Inn (DL11 6EN, NZ000029)                                                                                                                             | Little Punchard Gill, ArkengarthdaleFollowing Arkle Beck to the hamlet of Whaw and then moorland tracks to the lower end of Little Punchard Gill. Follow up the gill on small paths, sometimes undefined, and short rocky scrambles and              | 8.5mi/13.7km | Strenuous |
| Thu 30/06/2022 | 10:00 Off the A171 take the turn for Fylingthorpe onto a minor road known as Brow Top. Park in the first car park on your right. (YO22 4QB, NZ929046)                                               | Robin Hood's Bay &amp; Hawkser from FylingthorpeThis walk starts above Fylingthorpe, goes down to the coast at Robin Hood's Bay then along the Cleveland way coastal path coming back through farmland around Hawkser and then moorland returning to | 10mi/16.1km  | Moderate  |
| Thu 07/07/2022 | 09:30 Meet by the Memorial Garden in Saltburn (on Glenside)Free parking by the road (TS12 1JT, NZ664210)                                                                                        | A historical tour of East ClevelandPlease note start time of 9.30 which allows us to have lunch at the coast.A circular route starting from Saltburn. We will head through Rifts Wood, Crow Wood and Skelton on the Cleveland Way, then          | 11mi/17.7km  | Moderate  |
| Thu 07/07/2022 | 10:00 Park in the large car park but do NOT pay at the machine. Please go into the bar and they will sort out the cost. (DL12 0XH, NY884286)                                                        | A walk for flower lovers in TeesdaleA walk that starts at the Raby High Force hotel and goes over the moors to Langdon Beck and takes in a wonderful (fingers crossed!) flower path along the Harwood Beck. I am allowing a lot of time              | 8.5mi/13.7km | Moderate  |
| Tue 12/07/2022 | 11:00 W3W clings.puppy.educationPreston Museum Car park (TS18 3RH, NZ429157)                                                                                                                | Preston Park Pre River Cruise WalkA Mostly easy flat figure of eight walk from Preston Museum Car Park including woodland, & riverside walks, and circuit of a nature reserve                                                                        | 4.5mi/7.2km  | Easy      |
| Thu 14/07/2022 | 09:45 Square Corner on Osmotherley - Hawnbury road (DL6 3QB, SE479959)                                                                                                                              | Arden Great Moor - a circumnavigationA good walk which starts on undulating moorland paths, pretty pastures & woodland (accounting for half of the total ascent) with lovely views of Hawnbury Hill & Easterside as we enter the Arden Hall          | 11mi/17.7km  | Moderate  |
| Thu 14/07/2022 | 10:00 Car parking in Reeth market place. (DL11 6SY, SE038992)                                                                                                                                       | Reeth, High Fremington, Grinton and HealaughHead out of Reeth on the Langthwaite road. Take the path to West Raw Croft Farm. Cross over Arkle Beck following it to High Fremington. Pick up the Swale path to Grinton. Cross over Grinton Bridge     | 9mi/14.5km   | Moderate  |

|                |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                       |              |           |
|----------------|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|--------------|-----------|
| Thu 21/07/2022 | 10:00 How Stean Gorge. Limited parking - dependent on numbers double parking may be necessary. The cafe is open from 9am if any one wishes to have pre walk refreshments. (HG3 5SF, SE093734)                                                                                                                                                  | Gorges, Potholes and Scars in Upper NidderdaleStarting from the lowest point at the Gorge we head up over Middlesmoor, drop down to follow the valley of the River Nidd passing Goydon Pot and Manchester Hole before climbing back up to join part | 10mi/16.1km  | Moderate  |
| Thu 21/07/2022 | 10:00 Parking at Fletchers Farm Coffee Shop, Little Ayton (TS9 6HZ, NZ570102)                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                  | Roseberry Topping and Captain Cook CountryAn ascent and descent of Captain Cook's monument followed by a scenic walk across Great Ayton Moor and Hutton Moor. We then follow the Cleveland Way to Roseberry Topping where another ascent is         | 9.5mi/15.3km | Moderate  |
| Thu 28/07/2022 | 10:00 Car park on the moor at "Tom Corner". Head west-ish out of Kirkby Malzeard on the Kirkby Moor Road. Stay on the road until you reach a Farm and the road turns very sharp left. Go straight ahead on this bend along a road described as unsuitable for motor vehicles. The car park is about 1/4 mile on the right. (HG4 3QY, SE182726) | Crackpot's Mosaic TrailA walk through the Area of Outstanding Natural Beauty which is Nidderdale following the 22 mosiacs of Kirkby Malzeard. For those who have done it before it needs no introduction for those that                             | 7mi/11.3km   | Moderate  |
| Thu 28/07/2022 | 10:00 Car park in Hutton le HoleThis is a pay and display car park. Please note that payment is £4.80 for over 3 hours and is payable by card payment only.Public toilets are available in the car park. (YO62 6UB, SE705902)                                                                                                          | Hutton le Hole to Lastingham, via Spaunton MoorWalking North from Hutton le Hole along Hutton Ridge, then NE across Spaunton Moor, before turning South to pass Ana Cross walking towards Lastingham. We then turn West to return to Hutton le Hole | 8mi/12.9km   | Moderate  |
| Thu 04/08/2022 | 10:00 In the car park at Thruscross Reservoir. (HG3 4BB, SE154573)                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                             | Thruscross Reservoir RambleThe route essentially meanders around the reservoir, but we divert occasionally to follow the River Washburn and into areas of open country, which means the terrain is regularly changing. Although                     | 7.5mi/12.1km | Moderate  |
| Thu 04/08/2022 | 10:00 Limited street parking but ample field parking £5 for the day. NB Toilets at Bay top closed. Meet by Runswick Bay Hotel 10am (TS13 5JE, NZ805160)                                                                                                                                                                                        | Runswick - Woodland Becks and Clifftop ViewsFrom Runswick Bay we head inland and walk to Roxby before rejoining the coast at Cowbar, returning on the Cleveland Way. One short but tricky descent, you may like to have a stick. Tall grass /       | 9.5mi/15.3km | Moderate  |
| Mon 08/08/2022 | 16:00 White Bear CP next to Black Sheep Brewery Masham (HG4 4EN, SE223810)                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                     | Masham pub walk Note now on Monday 8th AugustFrom White Bear walk by square to riverside to follow rivers Ure and Burn to cross road bridge,.Now walk south on western banks .At Nutwith Cote join track to Roomer Common to reach Swinton Castle.  | 5.5mi/8.8km  | Leisurely |

|                |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                        |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   |               |           |
|----------------|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|---------------|-----------|
| Thu 11/08/2022 | 10:00 Park at the Aysgarth National Park Visitor Centre. £5 for over 4 hours, so please car share wherever possible. Tea room and toilets available.Post code: DL8 3TH What3Words: ///slams.spinning.perplexed (DL8 3TH, SE011887) | WALK CANCELLED due to extreme heat Aysgarth to GayleThis route starts from the Aysgarth National Park Visitor Centre onto Thoraby over fields, public byway and some road walking before a long, gradual ascent takes us up to the remoter and quiet area       | 8.3mi/13.4km  | Moderate  |
| Thu 11/08/2022 | 10:00 Lordstones Country Park (TS9 7JH, NZ524030)                                                                                                                                                                                      | WALK CANCELLED due to extreme heat Lordstones Country ParkFrom the car park the walk heads south east and then west over Bilsdale West Moor passing Brian's Pond and on to Barkers Craggs with good views of Scugdale. We descend to Scugdale Hall and continue | 9.5mi/15.3km  | Moderate  |
| Tue 16/08/2022 | 16:00 Park in public car park (cost £3)DL8 4ET (DL8 4ET, SE032918)                                                                                                                                                             | CANCELLED Castle Bolton evening walk and pub mealA walk to Bolton Castle and back via tracks, moor and field paths. Pub meal at the Three Horseshoes in Wensley. (If you have looked at this previously it is the same walk but a different start point)        | 5mi/8.1km     | Moderate  |
| Thu 18/08/2022 | 10:00 Park on grass verge at the entrance to Kildale Village from Great Ayton/Stokesley (YO21 2RG, NZ606092)                                                                                                                           | Baysdale CircularHilly walk over hill and down dale                                                                                                                                                                                                             | 7.5mi/12.1km  | Moderate  |
| Thu 18/08/2022 | 10:00 West Burton Green (DL8 4LA, SE017866)                                                                                                                                                                                            | Wensleydale Villages and WaterfallsFrom West Burton to Thoraby and Aysgarth and church to follow river to Hestholme bridge and Swinithwaite. Visiting temples chapel and balcony path return                                                                    | 10.5mi/16.9km | Moderate  |
| Thu 25/08/2022 | 10:00 Goathland Car Park (£3.50 card payment only) (YO22 5NJ, NZ833013)                                                                                                                                                                | A walk from GoathlandFrom the car park of this attractive and popular moorland village we walk to the railway station and head north along Mill Scar to the stepping stones at Darnholme. A short climb onto moorland then                                      | 7.5mi/12.1km  | Moderate  |
| Thu 25/08/2022 | 10:00 Car parking in Sedbergh (LA10 5BT, SD656920)                                                                                                                                                                                     | Quaker Footsteps in the Lune ValleyFrom the carpark to Briggflatts then on to Fox's Pulpit from there heading north east to Hole House, returning to Sedbergh via High Branthwaite                                                                              | 9.5mi/15.3km  | Moderate  |
| Tue 30/08/2022 | 16:30 Parking in the village hall car park. (HG4 5JU, SE269788)                                                                                                                                                                        | West Tanfield Pub Walk - RESCHEDULEDAfter a short walk around the Henges return to have a meal at the Bull Inn                                                                                                                                                  | 5mi/8.1km     | Leisurely |
| Thu 01/09/2022 | 10:00 Small parking area near the bridge in Marske. (DL11 7NB, NZ103004)                                                                                                                                                               | Marske and Marrick with MargFrom the car park the route follows Marske Beck to Helwith, then circles around Marrick Moor, returning to Marske along the foot of Fremmington Edge and on to Skelton Hall. All on good paths, tracks                              | 10mi/16.1km   | Moderate  |

|                |                                                                                                                                 |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |              |           |
|----------------|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|--------------|-----------|
| Thu 01/09/2022 | 10:00 Car park at top end of village on Leyburn Road. (DL8 3HJ, SD949911)                                                       | Askrigg waterfall and pasturesA lovely walk with undemanding hills but great views based on the lovely village of Askrigg.After walking through Askrigg we head for the river Ure and follow it to Woodall.A short climb takes | 8.2mi/13.2km | Moderate  |
| Tue 06/09/2022 | 17:00 Queen's Head pub car park in the village Finghall. (DL8 5ND, SE181897)                                                    | Finghall Pub Walk - CANCELLEDFrom the Queen's Head car park we walk down to the church, then follow the Burton beck to Constable Burton, returning to Finghall via Wood Hall.                                                          | 5mi/8.1km    | Leisurely |
| Thu 08/09/2022 | 10:00 Use off road car park which is signposted with a blue P from the through road. (DL8 3AW, SD972888)                        | Thornton Rust RambleThornton Rust to Thoraby (view) and Aysgarth via Gayle Ings. This walk has an initial steep ascent, to be tackled slowly, then settles down. There is archaeology, excellent views and the walk may                | 8mi/12.9km   | Moderate  |
| Thu 08/09/2022 | 10:00 Park and meet in the car park directly opposite the Stiddy PubWhat 3 Words redeemed.sedated.wand (YO21 3RT, NZ845130) | Lythe CircularWalking from Lythe through countryside and field paths towards runswick bay and returning via the old railway line & the cleveland way to lythe                                                                          | 8mi/12.9km   | Moderate  |
| Thu 15/09/2022 | 10:00 Meet at Fountains Abby car park (HG4 3DZ, SE271686)                                                                       | Fountains Winksley Sawley circuitStarting at fountains car park passing high Lyndrick to the village of Winksleyreturning via winksley moor,low Grantleyto pick up the Ripon Rowel to yhe road by fountains Hall and back to the car   | 9.7mi/15.6km | Moderate  |
| Thu 15/09/2022 | 10:15 Grosmont Station Platform 2 Buy ticket to Goathland .Depart 10.35 (YO22 5PA, NZ829052)                                    | Full Steam AheadFrom 10.15 am ( time to purchase your ticket £6.15 )The train leaves at 10.35 am to GoathlaThe walk starts from Goathland station with a 3.5 mile loop back to the village. . Then to Darnholm and                 | 8.7mi/14km   | Moderate  |
| Thu 22/09/2022 | 10:00 Bowlees Nature Reserve. Cost is £3/4 donation. (DL12 0XE, NY906282)                                                       | Teesdale - High and Low ForceThis walk is in an area of oustanding beauty and in the European Geopark. The walk follows the river Tees from Low Force waterfall passing High Force, Englands largest waterfall to Forest in Teesdale.  | 8mi/12.9km   | Moderate  |
| Thu 22/09/2022 | 10:00 In Low Row, the car parking area just beyond URC Church, on the lefthand side of the road. (DL11 6NF, SD978976)           | High Above Dale and SwaleFrom the car park in Low Row the route ascends initially through fields onto Brownsey Moor, Melbecks Moor, before returning down the Healaugh side of Mill Gill.                                              | 9mi/14.5km   | Moderate  |

|                |                                                                                                                                                   |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                              |              |          |
|----------------|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|--------------|----------|
| Thu 29/09/2022 | 10:00 Parking by the roadside and the Market Square in Middleham village. Public toilets available. Meet in the Market Square (DL8 4PE, SE127877) | Middleham circularThis walk explores the area beyond Middleham Castle, passing by the gallops as we head to the remains of Coverham Abbey, the beautiful church at Thorngill and Tuggill Park (home of the Forbidden                                                       | 9mi/14.5km   | Moderate |
| Thu 29/09/2022 | 10:00 Parking at top of Hawnby village (turn R then L) (YO62 5QS, SE543898)                                                                       | Hawnby MoorSome footpaths though mostly moorland tracks with views. Starting from the top of Hawnby village we head through Banniscue Wood N to Hawnby Moor then S to Moor Gate and around Hawnby Hill to return.                                                          | 8mi/12.9km   | Moderate |
| Thu 06/10/2022 | 10:00 Meeting place free car park on left just before you reach Richmond racecourse (DL10 4US, NZ171019)                                          | Richmond Race course to West Gilling Circular and return to RichmondA circular Walk from the old Richmond Racecourse carpark heading through Richmond Racecourse and through the grounds of Aske Hall before making our way to Gilling West and back via Gilling Wet Woods | 9.5mi/15.3km | Moderate |
| Thu 06/10/2022 | 10:00 Car Park at Blubberhouses adjacent to the A59. (LS21 2NY, SE168553)                                                                         | Become Familiar with FewstonThe route starts from the car park at Blubberhouses, then meanders around the area adjoining Fewston and Swinsty Reservoirs. We pass through a wide variety of terrain: moor, woodland, meadow, pasture                                        | 8.5mi/13.7km | Moderate |
| Thu 13/10/2022 | 10:00 Meet in the car park at the northern end of Hutton le Hole. Toilets (YO62 6UB, SE706902)                                                    | Hutton le Hole hikeA walk along lanes, visiting Appleton le Moors. Paths by the river Seven and up onto the moors on tracks and paths. A look into Lastingham with its ancient church. No stiles.                                                                          | 8.7mi/14km   | Moderate |
| Thu 13/10/2022 | 10:00 Meet outside the Bolton Arms (DL8 5BW, SE110904)                                                                                            | Leyburn CircularFrom Leyburn al, ong the Shawl to Preston Under Scar, on to Redmire then from Lords Bridge along the Ure to Wensley, returning to Leyburn                                                                                                                  | 9.5mi/15.3km | Moderate |
| Thu 20/10/2022 | 10:00 Mount Grace Priory Car Park ( £3) (DL6 3JG, SE447984)                                                                                       | Mount Grace PrioryThrough the woods from the car park to join the Cleveland Way. Crossing Scarth Wood Moor to the road then south to Sheepwash and along the Old Drovers Road (High Lane) to Chequers. From there we head                                                  | 9.5mi/15.3km | Moderate |
| Thu 27/10/2022 | 10:00 The start point is the Middleton Sports + Social club.There is a small car park next to the club. (DL12 0QL, NY946256)                  | Harter Fell and Grassholme from Middleton in TeesdaleStarting from Middleton we take a steady climb up Harter Fell taking in the very scenic views down to Middleton on one side and the reservoirs of Selset and Grassholme on the other. Descending into                 | 8.5mi/13.7km | Moderate |
| Thu 27/10/2022 | 10:00 Drive into Wolsingham then turn right onto Angate Street and just before the river, turn left into the free car park. (DL13 3DG, NZ075375)  | Wolsingham circularWe start in the free car park in Wolsingham then walk by the river then through farm and moorland until we reach Tunstall Reservoir. After skirting the reservoir we then climb up to the high ground                                                   | 8.1mi/13km   | Moderate |

|                |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                           |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                           |              |          |
|----------------|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|--------------|----------|
| Thu 03/11/2022 | 09:30 Lordstones Country Park (TS9 7JH, NZ524030)                                                                                                                                                                                         | Lordstones Country ParkFrom the car park the walk heads south east and then west over Bilsdale Moor passing Barkers Crag before descending into Scugdale. Almost 1 mile on the road takes us to Scugdale Hall and Raikes Farm                           | 8.5mi/13.7km | Moderate |
| Thu 03/11/2022 | 10:00 Parking is in the car park below the White Horse. (YO61 4AN, SE513811)                                                                                                                                                              | White Horse and KilburnFrom the Car Park we head to Scotch Corner and then downhill to Oldstead. Then over the fields to Kilburn Village and return via Kilburn Woods. The walk is mainly tracks and forest and field paths                             | 8mi/12.9km   | Moderate |
| Thu 10/11/2022 | 10:00 North Yorkshire Moors National Park Car Park Hutton le Hole (YO62 6UB, SE705901)                                                                                                                                                    | Douthwaite Dale CircuitFrom Hutton le Hole, go round under The Nab, across the dale and up through the woods to Gillamoor Church. Follow Shepherd's Road above the River Dove and climb through Rumsdale Plantation, before                             | 8.1mi/13km   | Moderate |
| Thu 10/11/2022 | 10:00 Meet at the Visitor Centre (HG4 3DY, SE276693)                                                                                                                                                                                      | Fountains AbbeyEnjoy Autumn colours as we leave the Visitor Centre towards Sawley before heading south via Fountains Park to the desirable residences of Ingerthorpe Grange & Ingerthorpe Hall. On towards                                              | 9.2mi/14.8km | Moderate |
| Thu 17/11/2022 | 10:00 Village street parking (DL7 9DS, SE393882)                                                                                                                                                                                          | AGM morning walkThornton le Moor and parkland                                                                                                                                                                                                           | 5mi/8.1km    | Easy     |
| Thu 24/11/2022 | 09:45 Meet in the car park near the Countryside Museum. The entrance when travelling from Bainbridge on A684 is on the right, just before the start of the one way system, opposite the children's outdoor play area. (DL8 3QA, SD875898) | Hawes - Gayle and two ...settsFrom Hawes we walk to Burtsett, then on to Gayle to follow Gayle beck (passing Aygill Falls) and then footpath to Appersett. Returning to the start via Hardraw. All on good paths.                                       | 9mi/14.5km   | Moderate |
| Thu 24/11/2022 | 10:00 Park in the Market Square at Masham (HG4 4EG, SE225807)                                                                                                                                                                             | Swinton Estate + Hackfall WoodWalking along the River Ure from Masham the walk takes us into the Swinton Estate grounds and then into Hackfall Wood. Mainly flat walking the route does have some ups and downs in the wood but                         | 8mi/12.9km   | Moderate |
| Thu 01/12/2022 | 10:00 Hart village. There is a small carpark between Hart Primary School and St Mary Magdalene Church. From the main street go down Butts Lane and turn right onto Magdalene Drive. (TS27 3BU, NZ469350)                                  | Hart to the Durham's Heritage Coast.The walk starts at St Mary Magdalene Church in Hart Village, the oldest church in the North of England. We will walk along, tracks, fields and paths to the Hart to Haswell railway, crossing Nesbitt               | 7.8mi/12.6km | Moderate |
| Thu 01/12/2022 | 10:00 Meet and park on the minor road above the village green near Bainbridge's old village school (DL8 3GA, SD933901)                                                                                                                    | Bainbridge and views from both sides of the DaleA circular walk from Bainbridge that traverses both sides of the dale, through wooded slopes and along the banks of tumbling streams, and the Dale's steadfast Ure. Visiting Askrigg and the hamlets of | 8.5mi/13.7km | Moderate |

|                |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                         |              |           |
|----------------|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|--------------|-----------|
| Thu 08/12/2022 | 09:30 From Great Ayton Rail Station follow Dikes Lane to the car park and picnic area. (TS9 6HN, NZ592110)                                                                                                                                                                                     | Pre Christmas Lunch Walk from Grib Dale GateA circular walk on mainly bridle ways and good paths from Gribdale Gate to Hutton Village then heading back up the cleveland way and make our way across the moors back to the cars, then drive to the    | 6mi/9.7km    | Moderate  |
| Thu 15/12/2022 | 10:00 North York Moors Car Park south of Newton Under Roseberry. Toilets available. £4.80 charge (TS9 6QS, NZ570129)                                                                                                                                                                           | Newton under Roseberry and the Cleveland HillsFrom the car park we walk across fields past Snow Hill Farm to meet the Guisborough Walkway. We follow this to the Visitor Centre at Pinchinthorpe, then go up to the Cleveland Hills. We will go round | 8mi/12.9km   | Moderate  |
| Thu 15/12/2022 | 10:00 Tates garden centre is the turning on the right coming out of Ripon before you reach the the turn off to Galphay, the post code may take you into a Caravan site before you get to the garden centre ,please dont go down this Lane (they share the same post code ) (HG4 2QR, SE297708) | Ripon to Studley Park CircularA pre Christmas walk meeting at Tates Garden Centre Studley rd Ripon and walking to Studley Lake via the charming village of Studley Roger then returning via the seven bridges Valley and head down to                 | 9mi/14.5km   | Moderate  |
| Thu 22/12/2022 | 10:00 Reeth Market Place (DL11 6SY, SE038992)                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                  | Peter's Birthday WalkFrom Reeth walking west along the bank of the Swale to 'Juniper Tree Dell'. Then east to Grinton, returning to Reeth via High Fremmington                                                                                        | 8mi/12.9km   | Moderate  |
| Thu 29/12/2022 | 10:00 Clay Bank Car Park, Picnic Area and Viewpoint on the B1257 between Great Broughton and Chop Gate, next to the junction with the minor road to Inglebt Greenhow (TS9 7JA, NZ572035)                                                                                                       | Broughton Plantation and Cold MoorA circular walk from Clay Bank Car Park, initially following tracks through Broughton Plantation, before following less defined paths up to Cold Moor. Descent to Broadfield Farm, before climbing to               | 5.7mi/9.2km  | Moderate  |
| Thu 29/12/2022 | 10:00 Nuns close car park (DL10 4AF, NZ168010)                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                 | Richmond and Skeeby RambleFrom Nuns Close CP walk round castle and riverside which we follow to Echo stone at Easby. Continue via Easby Village to St Trinians with gentle climb to Skeeby. Turn south to Union Farm and over                         | 8.5mi/13.7km | Leisurely |
| Thu 19/01/2023 | 10:00 Surrender bridge parking from Reeth take B6270 to Low row and turn ACUTE right as you come into Low Row up the hill and on to surrender bridge parking what three words isolated.dabbing.contents. (DL11 6ET, NY992008)                                                                  | Reeth high moor and Healaugh side moorsstarting from surrender bridge to Feetham pasture to pick up a track onto brownsey moor, passing knots hill, Moor house to frierfield rake and return either VIA Fincher Gill and Old gang smelter             | 8.8mi/14.2km | Moderate  |
| Thu 19/01/2023 | 10:00 Pinchinthorpe Visitor Centre - Please meet outside the Visitor Centre Entrance (Toilets are available inside)Parking charges apply in the car park -£4.00 for over 3 hours (TS14 8HD, NZ584152)                                                                                      | Guisborough Woods to High Cliff NabA Winter walk through Guisborough Woods along woodland tracks to Bousdale Farm, Hutton Lowcross Woods and Highcliff Nab. Returning to Pinchinthorpe Visitor Centre along lower paths. Good views if            | 8mi/12.9km   | Moderate  |

|                |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                         |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    |              |           |
|----------------|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|--------------|-----------|
| Thu 26/01/2023 | 09:30 Square Corner Car Park on the Osmotherley-Hawnby Road SE479959 (DL6 3QB, SE479959)                                                                                                                                                | A Right Angled WalkA mix of woodland paths & moorland tracks with great views on a clear day, and passing Near Moor, Faber's Stones and Miley Pike tumulus                                                                                       | 9mi/14.5km   | Moderate  |
| Thu 26/01/2023 | 10:00 Meet in layby to the south of Wensley Bridge (DL8 4HY, SE091893)                                                                                                                                                                  | Wensley Winter WalkBeginning at Wensley this familiar walk proceeds gently uphill through farmland to Preston under Scar and then beyond to the moors. The return is gently downhill. Good views throughout depending on                         | 8mi/12.9km   | Moderate  |
| Thu 02/02/2023 | 09:35 Meet at Ripon bus station to catch the 9.40am no 159 bus to West Tanfield. For those lucky enough to not be in their golden years with a bus pass at the time of writing the single bus fare was approx 2.80. (HG4 1AG, SE313713) | West Tanfield to RiponFrom West Tanfield we return along the route of the Ripon Rowel via North Stainley and the River Ure to finish at Ripon Cathedral. Mainly good tracks and field paths.                                                     | 8mi/12.9km   | Moderate  |
| Thu 02/02/2023 | 10:00 Meet at Danby Village Hall Car Park (YO21 2JL, NZ706084)                                                                                                                                                                          | Danby CircularHeading from Danby across moorland, then following a bridleway, a bit of road working before joining a moorland path heading downhill towards Comondale, before heading towards castleton, and a steady                            | 8.5mi/13.7km | Moderate  |
| Thu 09/02/2023 | 10:00 The western end of West Burton, roadside parking near the school. (DL8 4JZ, SE015864)                                                                                                                                             | Walking in WaldonFrom West Burton head west on the north side of Waldon Beck, returning back on the southern side - all on good paths.                                                                                                           | 7mi/11.3km   | Moderate  |
| Thu 16/02/2023 | 10:00 Flatts Lane Country Park Car Park, first section nearest road. Redcar and Cleveland might have set up Pay and Display by the time of the walk - decision pending. (TS6 0SZ, NZ552169)                                             | Going to California - After the Iron RushA visit to some of the remains from the century of ironstone mining in the Eston Hills, whilst hopefully getting good views of the coast and the Tees Estuary. Leaving Flatts Lane along Ten Acre Bank, | 8.4mi/13.5km | Moderate  |
| Thu 23/02/2023 | 10:00 Meet by the cliff top lift at the top of Saltburn. There is plenty of free parking. (TS12 1DP, NZ665216)                                                                                                                          | Saltburn circularWe start above Saltburn and walk down the steps to the beach promenade. We take a track up from the Ship Inn then walk up to the trig point. From there we skirt the golf club and on into Brotton.                             | 8mi/12.9km   | Moderate  |
| Thu 23/02/2023 | 10:00 Back Lane Car Park, Boroughbridge Honesty Box Parking and Public Toilets. (YO51 9PQ, SE397667)                                                                                                                                    | MesopotamiaA pancake-flat walk which includes two battlefield sites, the confluence of two major Yorkshire rivers, a rather fine 'chateau' on a combination of farm lanes and riverside paths including a short                                  | 8mi/12.9km   | Leisurely |

Join the Ramblers today

Not already a member then why not join today at <http://www.ramblers.org.uk>.